ATMS CHRONO LOGIN REQUIREMENTS

1. OS platform to target

- iOS
- Android

2. Features description

Describing ATMS Chrono login functionality for typical user

- Sign in option
- Application login screen accepts username, password and server address
- If all fields are filled with input, user can login button to try and login to his account
- Username field will accept letters and numbers only, minimal length is 5 chars and maximum is 50
- Password field will accept letters and numbers only, minimal length is 12 chars and maximum is 50
- Text written in the password field is hidden by default and user can use a button to show the password
- Server address field will accept letters, numbers and special letters, minimal length is 5 char and maximum is 50, input needs to be also in proper range
- Application will return specific information as a pop-up for each of the fields if input is negative path and generally after unsuccessful login
- Application will return information as a pop-up after successful login